Our mit of President IV attracted the artention of a large number of our readers. and the friends of temperants generally The desire to acture any one of our splendid prizes is rapidly increasing. The lucky individual who accures the bighest premium will have to exert himself more than he now auticipates. This we are certain of to judge from the tenor and spirit of the letters we have already received. But we do not wish to let our friends know too much about the extent of the competition for themdums." We have promised to be eilent. We hope our friends will renew their exertions to circulate the Organ in places where it does not now circulate... Lard Oi remains dull, and although prices are nominally unchanged, sales could not be effected to any extent at our inside figures. We quote 65@ the for No. 2, and 80@ 85a for No. 1. Red Oil we continue to quote at 5jc ♥ B. Tanners' $94@27 $ bbit.

PROVISIONS—The market has continued to present a quiet and heavy appearance, and our figures indicate a farther decline in bulk and smoted meats. Towards the close, however, there was less disposition on the part olders to meet purchasers at the reduced rates, ar the latter evinced rather more desire to increase their stocks. The sales of the week, as far as reported to us comprised—Of Pork, 1000 bbls Mess, at $14, 230 and 70 do do, at same, closing firm, In Rumps or Price, we heard of no transactions.
